TRACE THE

Lewis and Clark led the Corps of Discovery from 1803-1806. The goals of the expedition were to map the newly acquired territory, find a water route to the Pacific Ocean, and make known amongst the tribes the United States.

SACAGAWEA

Sacagawea, a Shoshone woman from Lemhi County, Idaho, helped Lewis and Clark with their expedition. Though Meriwether Lewis had a somewhat negative view of her, William Clark had a high regard for her.

Research about Sacagawea and her accomplishments in helping Lewis and Clark.
