

Alliteration Worksheets

Fill in Alliteration

Alliteration is a poetic technique or literary stylistic device where a series of words in a sentence have the same first consonant sound. In other words, alliteration is when the beginning sound of words are repeated in close succession.

DIRECTIONS: Fill in the gaps with the words from the box.

slimy	whistling	sounds	bounced	helped
put	invited	burped	romy	purple

1. Peter Parker _____ his painting on the wall.
2. The boy _____ the ball in the backyard.
3. Helen happily _____ her housemaid with the housework.
4. Most men don't _____ making their men cave tidy.
5. The wind was _____ through the holes in the walls.
6. The sheriff put his _____ star shaped badge.
7. I sometimes hear _____ of someone saying something.
8. A big brown bear _____ into our boxes.
9. My neighbour is normally _____ but not now.
10. The parrot landed on pirate's _____ parcel.

Download more worksheets at kidskonnnect.com