

FOUR SEASONS PRINTABLES

FREE

The image displays four overlapping printable worksheets. The first worksheet on the left is a seasonal calendar with four quadrants for Fall, Summer, Winter, and Spring, each containing small illustrations. The second worksheet is titled 'Which Season?' and features a red truck, a green leaf, a blue and red wheel, a bee, and a snowman. The third worksheet contains a series of questions: 'How long is your pinkie finger?', 'How long is a crayon?', 'How long is a large paper clip?', and 'How long is your pencil?'. Below these are small circular icons for each season. The fourth worksheet is a larger sheet with a grid for drawing and writing. It includes a small illustration of a person and a list of activities: '1. In the _____ I spend a lot of time swimming.', '2. I love to put on my hat and gloves. The snow is doing _____.', '3. Each _____ leaves in our yard. Then we have _____.', and '3. During _____ I look forward to watching baby chicks side our window.' The grid has 'summer' and 'fall' in the top row, and 'winter' and 'spring' in the bottom row.
