

"The Tortoise & the Hare" Storytelling Wheel

A hare was bragging to a group of animals that he was the fastest runner and could beat anyone in a race.

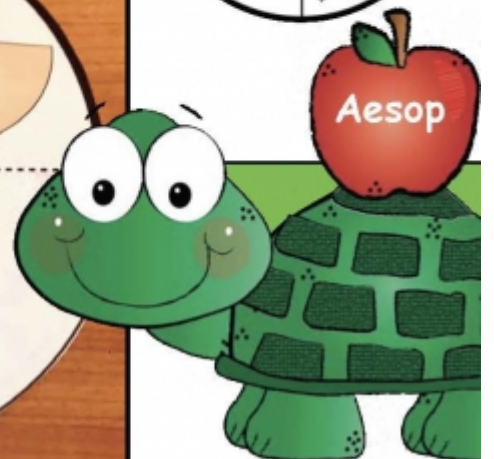

When the tortoise challenged him, the rabbit made fun of the turtle because he was so slow.

The conceited hare was so confident that he would beat the tortoise, that he took a nap during the race, while the turtle continued to slowly plod along.

When the hare suddenly awoke, the determined tortoise was crossing the finish line.
