

All About Sea Turtles

- Sea turtles are reptiles.
- Sea turtles live in the ocean.
- Sea turtles have flippers instead of legs to help them swim.
- Sea turtles cannot bring their heads and legs into their shells to hide like land turtles can.
- Sea turtles eat jellyfish, crab, seaweed, shrimp, and snails.
- Sea turtles lay eggs.
- Sea turtles can lay more than 100 eggs in their nests in the sand.
- Baby sea turtles are called “hatchlings”.
- Sea turtles can live to be more than 50 years old.