

SECOND CONDITIONAL

IF I WERE PRESIDENT...

Instructions:

- Find the video:
On YouTube, by searching for "Second Conditional – If I were president...".
Or by clicking the link on the website where you found this worksheet.
- Study how to form the second conditional and why it is used.
- Discuss the topics in bold below. Make sure everyone understands the meaning of them.
- Watch the video. Think about each issue and circle the option that you would choose if you were president of your country.
- Compare your answers with a partner and discuss.

1. Guns - If I were president, I would...

- allow everyone to own a gun.
- allow all adults without a criminal record to own a gun.
- only allow people who go hunting to own a gun.
- ban guns completely.

2. Education - If I were president, I'd...

- make everyone pay the full cost of their education.
- make the rich pay more than the poor for their education.
- make education free for those who cannot afford to pay for it.
- make education free for everyone.

3. Fast Food - If I was president, I would...

- not make any laws about food.
- limit the amount of fast food that children can eat.
- make fast food more expensive by increasing tax on it.
- ban all fast food.

4. Recycling - If I was president, I'd...

- make no laws about recycling.
- offer recycling options for people that want to do it.
- make everyone recycle their plastic.
- ban all unnecessary plastic, such as plastic bags and straws.