

Fact or Opinion

I can identify the different language authors use to present fact or opinion.

Bamboo, which grows in the rainforest, is the fastest growing plant in the world. There is a kind of bamboo that can grow up to 91cm every day!

The black howler monkey is the most interesting animal in the rainforest.

The noise made by black howler monkeys can be heard more than 3 miles away!

To help me develop an informed view, I can distinguish fact from opinion, and I am learning to recognise when my sources try to influence me and how useful these are. LIT 2-08a

Illegal logging is really hard to stop. The rainforest is so big, that it is easy for loggers to chop down trees in an area so remote that nobody sees what they are doing.

Rainforests are situated along the equator. They get a high amount of rainfall, with around 250cm of rain falling each year.
