

Each day you work on this calendar worksheet:

- 1) Find the date on the calendar and draw an X in the box that represents the current day.
- 2) Complete one or more balloon calendar question below. Color the balloons as you complete them.

Balloons with a crayon: color the date(s) on the calendar.

What is the current month and year?
Highlight the name of the month in yellow.

What season are we in?

Which month comes before January?

How many months are in a year?

What is the 7th month of the year?

your birthday

spring break

How long is Spring Break?

How many days are there in January?

winter holidays

What day of the week is New Years Day?

March 20: first day of spring

What month comes after May?

last day of the school year

June 20: first day of summer

September 22: first day of fall

first day of the next school year

How many Tuesdays are there in August?

How many months / weeks / days before your birthday?

December 21: first day of winter

What is the 11th month of the year?

any other important days for you

How many months / weeks / days before the next season?

What month will it be 4 months from now?

What day of the week was the day before yesterday?

What season will we be 9 months from now?

What day comes after Saturday?

What day of the week is the last day of the month?