

The Boy Who Cried Wolf

In the Beginning:

There was a young shepherd boy who tended his sheep. He's lonely.

In the middle:

The boy played a trick and yelled, "wolf, wolf!" when there was no wolf.

In the End:

A real wolf came but nobody helped because they had been fooled before. The wolf ate the boy.

Lesson: Always tell the truth! If you lie, people will not believe you.

shepherd - someone who watches sheep

tended - take care of mountain - a very steep hill

remained - stay put

Go

"The chat day

Do

"The napped all day

The

Go

Wor