

World Heritage Sites: EASTER ISLAND

Name: _____

Heavy Heads

Examine the picture below of one of the moai (heads) at Easter Island. Notice the shape, line, and shadows. Sketch your own version of the picture in the space below.

5420

Rongorongo!

Rongorongo

Rongorongo is a system of glyphs that Easter Islanders appear to have used to communicate with one another. Below are the glyphs representing some numbers. Can you solve the math problems using numbers and drawing your answer in glyphs?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20

Planning

Easter Island Quiz

Use the fact sheets to correctly answer each of the following questions.

- Every answer each of the following questions.
1. What ocean is Easter Island found in?
a) Indian Ocean
b) Pacific Ocean
c) Polynesian Ocean
d) Atlantic Ocean
 2. What are the mysterious statues on Easter Island called?
a) Moai
b) Moys
c) Easter Eggs
d) Moyns
 3. It is said that Easter Island has the richest collection of what in the world?
a) Diamonds
b) Volcanic ash
c) Petroglyphs
d) Coals
 4. What country is Easter Island a part of?
a) Argentina
b) Antarctica
c) Peru
d) Chile
 5. Who was the Dutch navigator who made first contact?
a) Jacob Roggeveen
b) James Cook
c) Alabair Robinson
d) None of the above